SMI Adviser is a free program funded by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration and administered by the American Psychiatric Association.

Our mission is to advance the use of a person-centered approach to care that ensures people who have serious mental illness (SMI) find the treatment and support they need.

SMI Adviser supports real-world clinical practice with:

- Consultations for all mental health professionals on the implementation of evidence-based screening and treatment for SMI.
- CME/CNE-certified online courses on a variety of topics related to SMI.
- A searchable Knowledge Base with resources and answers about SMI.
